Men who have had no luck in finding a partner so far are now trying to find love through these personal ads. After finding the girl you have always wanted, it may be overwhelming trying to figure out the best way to keep the relationship going while you two are getting ready to visit each other. There are many couples who have had to spend some time apart during their relationship, but still managed to stay together after these stressful experiences. They were just lucky to figure out the recipe of a successful long distance relationship!

Talk to each other every day.

One can't stress enough the importance of talking to your other half every day. It's all the more important if you and your partner met through free Russian personals and haven't been able to create a life together yet. Texting and calling frequently is the key to a successful relationship. It will make you feel closer and more connected and this is very important for every relationship. It will be a lot easier to solve your problems if you know you're both in this together. Fortunately, all the online couples can thank technology for making their lives easier. The best part of it all, the countless communication ways that let you to be in touch daily are not expensive at all. Through a combination of emails, Skype calls, and virtual dates, there really is no difficulty in keeping in touch.

Discuss your goals and boundaries.

Many people may have feelings of insecurity and jealousy in a relationship. It's not easy being far from each other and not knowing who your partner is interacting with. "Are there other men around her?" "Is her best friend in love with her?" At the same time, your girlfriend could be wondering too. "Is she your one and only?" "Is she the one?" These feelings of jealousy and insecurity are hard to control, but the way you get over them is up to you. By setting expectations and clear boundaries it's possible to deal with online dating and avoid fights and misunderstandings. Since your goal is to be eventually together and get married, it is quite reasonable to demand from each other to stick to certain rules.

Discuss matters of money honestly.

If there's one aspect that may bring a bad image to free Russian personals, it is the stories of frauds and scammers among the people who are "looking for a partner". To eliminate any suspicions regarding the possibility of a fraud from the start, talk honestly about both of your finances. If you have been talking about your day and you know she has been to the shopping centre, ask her if she bought anything and if it cost a lot. From what she answers you can see if your girlfriend knows how to manage her money. This is important, particularly if you are just a normal guy working hard to earn a living.
